TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

In my relationship with Harry Wilson cubmaster of Pack 158 I have found that Mr. Wilson is a hard working man. In the past several years Harry has been attending roundtables regularly. His unit has participated in the council school nite program. Mr. Wilson has even taken time to be with me at the daytime school assemblies. Also his unit has taken part in our district activities such as, pinewood derbies and cub olympics. Members of his pack attend the cub scout summer day camp at pine hill. If Harry Wilson has a drawback it is a certain touch of stubbornness and lack of flexibility, but this has not greatly affected Pack 158.

If there is any change in the situation I will contact your office through my Scout Executive.

Sincerely,

John P. Majane, District Executive

Dear Paul,

I am in receipt of your letter of November 5, 1981.

The individual you speak of in that letter is and has been registered in Pack 185, Bellmar, N. J. This unit is now registered as Pack 3158 with a different sponsor, but still Bellmar.

To our knowledge there has not been any situation involving him since 1961, and I am unaware of what the problem was at that time.

Therefore, we agree with the decision not to deny him registration at this time.

If you have data to prove otherwise, please advise.
Thank you.

Yours in Scouting,

Chris R. Klenk

Dear Paul:

In answer to your letter of October 10, 1979, I have re-checked on Harold W. Wilson with our District Executive in that area.

Harold W. Wilson is still associated with Troop 188, Presque Isle. There have been no problems in regard to this man's character or leadership performance, as far as we know, and I would see no reason to not continue his registration.

This application was refused by your letters of September 10th and 24th due to lack of information concerning your inquiry.

Re: Harry Wilson,
Scoutmaster, Troop 50

Dear Howard:

Thank you for the complete information on Harry Wilson. We especially appreciate the thorough statement of the Chief of Police.

There is a little question as far as the name. I notice in your letter you mention Harry Wilson as well as the Chief of Police, but on the charter application he is listed as Harry W. Wilson Smith. I Robert R. Smith of the same address (108 Saunders Ave. Bellmawr) is listed as the Institutional Representative. Is his name really Wilson or Smith? Maybe he goes by both and if he does, we need to list him two ways.

I am enclosing the usual confidential record sheet. Will you complete it and return it to us.

Dear Basil:

Well, we got another one.

Enclosed is a photostatic copy of a letter written by the Chief of Police ~~to~~ Harry Wilson, Scoutmaster of Troop 50 sponsored by the Trinity Evangelical Lutheran Church in Runnemede, N. J. I believe the statement speaks for itself - in ~~more~~ ways than one. Believe this means that Wilson's name should be put on the confidential file and trust that you agree and will take this action.
